

Learn How to Nurture Your Child's Kindergarten Readiness Skills

FREE Virtual Parent Education Presentation

Tuesday, February 15, 2022

7 - 8:00 PM

Presented by: Hayley Robichaud, Special Needs Teacher, Grades K-2

During this virtual presentation, Hayley will discuss ideas about the kinds of activities that families can enjoy together to nurture and promote young children's readiness skills in preparation for transitioning to kindergarten. This includes the development of early academic and emergent literacy skills, self-help skills, as well as language and fine motor.

Hayley Robichaud has been a special educator at Florence Sawyer School in Bolton since 2018. Prior to that she earned her undergraduate degrees in Elementary and Special Education from Salve Regina University. Since her undergraduate career, Hayley has continued her learning through Fitchburg State University's Masters program for Special Education and Carroll School's Orton- Gillingham teacher training program for teaching students with language based learning difficulties. Outside of the classroom Hayley is also a teacher in the dance world, working at numerous local dance studios after school hours.

Please complete the registration form: Event Registration

A presentation link will be sent via email before the event.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact Liz Garreffo, Early Childhood Coordinator, at egarreffo@nrsd.net or Liz Dumas at edumas@nrsd.net.

Presentation Provided by:

Nashoba Community Partnership for Children

Nashoba Community Partnership is funded by the Coordinated Family and Community Engagement grant awarded to the Nashoba Regional School District by the Massachusetts Department of Early Education and Care to serve the communities of Bolton, Lancaster and Stow.